

Rhinelanders' David Heck of Heck Capital Advisors Honored for Charitable Work with the Hodag Schools Foundation

Rhinelanders, WI – July 12th, 2017 – David Heck, president of the Hodag Schools Foundation in Rhinelanders, WI, received Honorable Mention for philanthropic excellence in the eleventh annual Invest in Others Awards.

The Invest in Others Charitable Foundation established its awards program to recognize the charitable work of financial advisors and financial services firms in communities across the country and around the world.

Financial advisors are nominated by their peers for actively giving back to non-profits to improve their communities and make a difference in the lives of others. Hundreds of inspirational nominations for the Invest in Others Awards were received this year and reviewed by a diverse panel of leaders in the financial services industry. Those earning Honorable Mention were selected based on their leadership, dedication, contribution, inspiration, and impact on a non-profit and the community it serves.

David Heck, a founding member of the Hodag Schools Foundation, has served as president of the foundation since 2003. The foundation's mission is to provide financial support for quality programs and facilities benefitting students and faculty in the Rhinelanders School District. Together, Heck and the foundation organized fundraising for the renovation and improvement of countless school district facilities. Heck's commitment and dedication to the Hodag Schools Foundation helped make these improvements possible. The foundation, with Heck's guidance as president, continues to build a future where Rhinelanders School District students and staff are inspired to learn and grow in a state-of-the-art environment.

The eleventh annual Invest in Others Awards Gala, a premier event attended by over 500 financial advisors and financial services executives, is September 28, 2017 in New York City. Awards will be presented in the following categories: Catalyst, Community Service, Global Community Impact, Volunteer of the Year, Lifetime Achievement, and Corporate Philanthropy.

About the Invest in Others Charitable Foundation

The inspiration for the Invest in Others Charitable Foundation came directly from the financial advisors who invest in others by giving back to their communities with overwhelming generosity and dedication. Since its founding in 2006, Invest in Others has amplified these efforts by providing a platform for advisors to increase awareness, visibility, and funding to their favorite non-profits.
